Offers Over £200,000

This brick fronted terraced property comes to the market requiring modernisation and cosmetic improvement. It offers versatile internal accommodation and a blank canvas for one to enhance and bring forward the character charm these homes offer. Situated on a no-through road amongst a row of similar terrace homes, this two bedroom, two reception room home is not only spacious but is perfectly located in the most central spot for access into Cosham high street, walking distance to the mainline railway station and a stroll from the ever expanding Queen Alexandra hospital. There are a host of shops on the doorstep, a local school and community facilities plus a short drive takes you into Portsmouth, onto the A27 and M27 for commuter access.

The property comprises two generously sized double bedrooms, two reception rooms, a well-sized kitchen and a first floor four piece bathroom. Parking is on street and there is a garden accessed from the kitchen.

With a council tax band B, this property offers an affordable opportunity to create a comfortable and personalised living space in a sought after area. Don't miss out on the chance to transform this property into a cosy home in a thriving local community.

Viewings are strictly by appointment.
