To complement, there is ample parking to the front, a good wide sideway and a very sizeable secluded garden with the added benefit of rear vehicular access from Station Road, making this an ideal opportunity for those looking for a property with scope and potential to perhaps build a garage, erect a substantial multi purpose garden room or store a motor home.

In summary, an exceptional semi detached house with an immaculate and superior interior, smartly finished inside and out with everything attended to. A turn key option for those looking for all the ease of a new build but the space and character of a substantial established home.
