Cleverly extended and expanded this smart detached house was originally a Crayfern constructed three bedroom house which the current owners have now arranged and enhanced to provide two luxury bedrooms with excellent dressing/wardrobe space & an en suite.

Originally designed and built by Crayfern Homes as a three-bedroom house the current owners have resided here from new and with careful consideration to space and design have enhanced the interior to provide a totally stress-free open style living environment. The first sense that this property offers very exclusive accommodation is the feeling when you walk into the hall – it's not cramped and narrow like most new builds, it's a welcoming space leading to the principal accommodation. The kitchen dining room is fresh, smart and well finished with warm tones complementing the light sage kitchen which comes complete with all the up-to-date storage solutions for simplicity. Offering ample room for a dining table this is a wonderful setting for hosting. The standout feature of this fine home has to be the living area, it is just so flexible. Tastefully decorated with fine chalky finish Farrow and Ball décor, its spacious and very comfortable; with the trifolds concertinaed the area takes on a whole new dynamic, its contemporary the high vaulted finish on the conservatory only.
