The beauty of this home is not only does it provide light bright modern open plan accommodation its warm and welcoming with a contemporary twist. The neutral décor, quality finish and smart kitchen means it's an exciting place to furnish and style. Everything about this lovely home is right, its got quality and flows so well due to the aspect and light. To complement the garden hasn't been overlooked when it comes to on trend styling, the specimen olive trees dotted around the perimeter give this garden the edge, its relaxing and an area you want to use as much as the weather permits. Additional space to the side and a large workshop with power means not only is the house well thought out and presented but the exterior has as much to offer as the interior – with parking to side and a lovely frontage this is a super house in a super plot and one to view.
