33 Hertsfield, Fareham, PO14 4SE

£250,000

Originally constructed in the mid 1980's this traditionally built two bedroom house is an ideal first step onto the housing ladder. The layout consists of a living/dining room at the front with a modern kitchen across the rear overlooking the garden accessed via the conservatory. The first floor has a double and a single bedroom with a family bathroom. The enclosed garden is not overlooked and occupies a larger than average corner position.

Hertsfield is a cul de sac of around 40 properties from two to four bedrooms. They are traditional builds and are sought after usually by young professionals and families alike. There are amenities close by including the Locks Heath Centre with its everyday shopping and community facilities about a mile distance and there is easy access to the M27 about a five minute drive.

The property is offered with vacant possession.
